

SPORTS MEDICINE FELLOWSHIP

AT

UPMC CENTER FOR SPORTS MEDICINE

is a one year ACGME ((#3424134013) accredited clinical fellowship offered by the Department of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation and the UPMC Rehabilitation Institute. More about our SM Fellowship is available at: http://www.rehabmedicine.pitt.edu/fellowship/fel\_SM.html

Clinical training is based at UPMC Center for Sports Medicine an outpatient clinic service, where PM&R physicians and other physician specialists (including radiology, orthopaedic surgeons, sports medicine, primary care, and neuropsychology), work in the same location as physical therapy specialists (including spine, sports, and athletic trainers), and concussion specialists.

CORE COMPETENCIES

- g The fellowship offers a high performance level of training across several outpatient and procedural clinics focusing on the following core competencies
- g Musculoskeletal ultrasound:
  - g diagnostic and ultrasound guided procedures
- g Sports concussion:
  - g evaluation, treatment, pharmacological management, return to play
- g Interventional spine procedures
  - g training in fluoroscopy for spine procedures
- g Collegiate level on field athletic management
  - g management of emergency conditions, treatment of acute injuries
- g Development of academic skills
  - g curriculum development, teaching and mentoring of residents and medical students, presenting at national conferences

ELECTIVES IN SPECIALTY AREAS

Fellows may choose specialty training in the following elective areas

- EMG – performance of needle electromyography and nerve conduction studies, ability to successfully pass the American Board of Electrodiagnostic Medicine boards.
- Musculoskeletal Research - develop an understanding of clinical medical research through topics in statistics, basic measurements, IRB approvals, and clinical design and hands on involvement in a longitudinal research experience.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Interested physicians should submit all applications through ERAS. Please note our ACGME Number is 3424134013.

For more information on the application process visit our Fellowship website at

http://www.rehabmedicine.pitt.edu/fellowship/fel\_PRM.html

Or contact:

Stacey Snead-Peterson, MS
GME Academic Manager
sneadpetersons@upmc.edu

J. Ramirez-Del Toro, MD
Assistant Professor
Director,
Sports Medicine
Fellowship

Ranked 11th in Rehabilitation

